Announcements

Invitation into Reflective moment

(What are you carrying away from here this day)

Final Hymn: The Lourdes Magnificat (Michael Hodgetts)

Ant: *God fills me with joy, Alleluia.
God's holy wisdom is my guide. Alleluia*

I praise the source of life, the blessings all I savour.
Rejoice for who am I that God has shown such favour.

The world shall call me blest and ponder on my story.
In me is manifest God's greatness and God's glory.

For all who are God's friends and seek a life as holy.
God's mercy never ends, for all the meek and lowly.

But when power instigates, so proud and self-conceited,
The kings who sit in state are humbled and defeated.

God feeds the starving poor and guards our holy nation.
Fulfilling grace in store, as shown in revelation.

Then glorify with me – empowering God's endeavour,
One holy Trinity – forever and forever.

Welcome and Invitation into Quiet

Opening Song: The Song is Alive Everywhere (Ken Medema))

For the song is alive everywhere, (2)
and blessed are the ones who get to give the pitch,
for the song is alive everywhere.

For the song is a garden full of flowers, (2)
and blessed are the ones who get to till the soil,
for the song is a garden full of flowers.

For the song is a bright, clear morning sun, (2)
And blessed are the ones who get to lift the shades,
for the song is a bright, clear morning sun.

For the song is a road that leads back home, (2)
and blessed are the ones who get to raise the signs,
for the song is a road that leads back home.

The song is alive everywhere (2)
And blessed the ones who get to give the pitch,
who get to till the soil, who get to lift the shades,
who get to raise the signs.
For the song is alive everywhere . . .

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: A Reading from the Book of Proverbs

Wisdom has built her house; she has set up<sup>l</sup> its seven pillars.
She has prepared her meat and mixed her wine. And she has set her table.
She has sent out her servants, and she, calling forth the people from the highest point of the city:

“Let all who are simple come to my house!”

To those in any way deprived she says,

“Come, eat my food and drink the wine I have mixed.

Leave your simple ways and you will live;
walk in the ways of deeper wisdom.”

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 118(119):1-2,4-5,17-18,33-34

R/. They are happy who follow God's law!

They are happy whose life is blameless,
who follow God's law!

They are happy who do his will,
seeking him with all their hearts. R/.

You have laid down your precepts
to be obeyed with care.

May my footsteps be firm
to obey your statutes. R/.

Bless your servant and I shall live
and obey your word.

Open my eyes that I may see the wonders of your law. R/.

Teach me the demands of your statutes
and I will keep them to the end.

Train me to observe your law,
to keep it with my heart. R/.

Second Reading : 1 Corinthians 2:6-10

We have a wisdom to offer those who have reached maturity: not a philosophy of our age, it is true, still less of the masters of our age, which are coming to their end. The hidden wisdom of God which we teach in our mysteries is the wisdom that God predestined to be for our glory before the ages began. It is a wisdom that none of the masters of this age have ever known, or they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory; we teach what scripture calls: the things that no eye has seen and no ear has heard, things beyond the mind of man, all that God has prepared for those who love him. These are the very things that God has revealed to us through the Spirit, for the Spirit reaches the depths of everything, even the depths of God.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 5:17-37

Jesus said to the disciples: For I tell you that unless your virtue surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven. You have heard that it was said to our ancestors, ‘You shall not kill, and anyone does kill, he must answer for it before the court. ‘You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall not commit adultery.’ But I tell you that anyone who looks at another person lustfully has already committed adultery in the heart of their being. Again, you have heard that it was said to our ancestors, ‘Do not break your oath, but fulfil before God the vows you have made.’

But I tell you, do not swear an oath at all: All you need to say is simply ‘Yes’ if you mean ‘yes’ and ‘No’ if you mean ‘no’. Anything beyond that comes from an evil source.
