

Eucharistic Prayer – Call
Co-Presider 1	Almighty and ever-gentle God, we praise and bless you. Through your goodness, you have made this world and called us to be your children.
Side 1	We thank you for the sun, the moon, this earth, and its birds, fish, trees and everything that is beautiful around us. We thank you specially for our freedom, for the dreams of young people and old people's visions, for our minds, our hearts, our bodies.
Side 2	We praise you, for you call us to build the earth into a community of love. This will be our prayer to you. You have placed confidence in us, for you have made us and you know that we are good.
Co-Presider 2	In joy, and in thanksgiving for your call to us, We join with all creation as we sing your praise in words that will never cease:
All	Holy Holy
Co-residers	Loving God, we do not always understand what you have planned for us. It is difficult to grasp the mysterious depth of your love. So you sent your only begotten one, Jesus, to show us who we are. Jesus challenged us to call you "Abba" and taught us not to be afraid. Jesus showed us how to forgive and taught us that love is stronger than all sin.
All	And so loving Mother/Father, to help us remember the call you have given us, we gather here at Jesus' command to celebrate this simple meal:
Co-presiders	On the evening before his suffering and death, Jesus took bread into his hands, he blessed you, and broke the bread, and gave it to the disciples with the words: This is my body, which will be given up for you. He also took the cup and giving thanks to you, said: This cup is the new covenant in my blood shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me
All	Acclamation

Side 1	And so, loving God, celebrating Jesus' death, his rising from the dead, and ascension to on-going life with you, we join in this offering to you, a life of love, lived in your presence.
Side 2	Let us proclaim our salvation: Loving God, open our hearts to the Spirit dwelling within us. May this same Spirit help us to listen without fear to your call to us. May she lead us to a life of love and service, full of confidence in you.
Side 1	We pray that wherever we are, justice will shine forth, and that all women and men can approach each other as equals, as brothers and sisters living in the light of your presence. We make our prayer through Jesus the Christ through whom we receive everything that is good.
Together:	Through Him, with Him ...
